

Towpath quilt guild general meeting minutes, United Methodist Church, Fayetteville, NY 09/10/19

To welcome members, coffee, tea, and breakfast goodies were provided.

Leftover boutique and other donated fabrics were available for a donation.

Co-president Barbara welcomed everyone at 10:03.

Minutes were displayed on the back table.

The treasurer's report is in the monthly minder.

The monthly minder was printed for this meeting, in the future however, members will have to print it from the website, or from email.

Scholarships were drawn and the winners are as follows: Terri F, Cathy D, Barbara W, and Berta K. Alternates are Elaine L, and Francis O. Rules for use were explained.

Sign up for mystery quilt began. The first set of instructions will come in October; see Bonnie.

61 out of 80 members were present; 4 new and 4 guests.

Quilters Consortium of New York State passports were available.

Fat quarter exchange winners were Marilyn and Vicky.

Holiday luncheon theme is most wonderful time of the year. Chairs needs 25 ounce glass pasta jars.

Service project donations are quilts and fleece blankets size twin XL for the YMCA mens residence.

August workshops needs a chairperson.

Karen explained how the library works, and is always open to suggestions for new books.

Members may advertise for free once a year in the newsletter. Noel will send copies to members without email as well as past members who can no longer make it to meetings.

Website- Towpathquiltguild.org contains the agenda, monthly minder, workshop materials lists, picnic/party sign up lists, but contains no advertisements or resources.

The quilt show was a success! 517 paid attendees was a record. Silent auction raised $762 benefitting Canastota HS Dollars for Scholars, and the Canastota Canal Museum. Bed turning has a big hit!

Please join Alexa for a tea at Sarah's Guest House Thursday October 3rd.

Capes for CF kits will be available in October; they are due back by the March general meeting.

After break, scholarship winners Missy and Karen gave presentations during Show and Tell.

The meeting adjourned at 11:49.

Respectfully submitted by,

Jeannine Lloyd- recording secretary

